

READY TO MOVE ON RIO

Da Gama's Forces Prepared to Make a Land Attack.

Decisive Battle of the Brazilian War May Occur To-Day.

Insurgents Believed to Be About to Make a Desperate Effort.

(Copyrighted, 1894, by the Associated Press.) RIO DE JANEIRO, Feb. 5.—Unless present indications turn out incorrect the fate of President Peixoto and Admiral da Gama and his followers will be decided to-day.

During Saturday night and Sunday the insurgents steamed their ships into position of advantage, preparatory to making a thorough and decisive attack upon the Government positions, at Niteroy especially.

It is understood that this is a final and desperate effort upon the part of the insurgents, and that on its success everything depends so far as the revolution is concerned.

It is expected that if the insurgent commander succeeds in landing a force on shore this morning it will advance, covered by the fire of the rebel vessels, upon the Government positions and the final battle is then expected to be fought.

The foreign warships are closely watching the operations, and there has been no further interference of any sort up to the time this dispatch is filed.

The general opinion ashore seems to be that the insurgents will be defeated, and that the collapse of the rebellion, in this part of the country at least, will immediately follow.

BENHAM'S POSSIBLE HONORS.

Thanks of Congress Would Give Him Ten Years More Active Service.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Admiral Benham's future may be much affected by the recent incident in Rio Harbor, and the resolution introduced by Representative Money complimenting the Admiral.

In the regular course of events he would be retired in April next, but should Congress give him a resolution of thanks, his period of active service would be extended ten years further.

Only about thirty or forty men were paid in the regular course of events, but should Congress give him a resolution of thanks, his period of active service would be extended ten years further.

In another respects the vote of thanks would give Admiral Benham unusual privileges. Rule 24, in the House, provides that among the few to be accorded the privilege of admission to the floor are such persons as have, by name, received the thanks of Congress.

GALLANT YANKEES IN AFRICA

Dashing Ride of Two Americans Who Were with Capt. Wilson.

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Feb. 5.—F. C. Selous, the explorer, who has just returned from South Africa, tells a graphic story of his experiences with the Wilson detachment.

Selous also confirms the statements made by Corydon, the hunter, of the prominent and brilliant part taken by two Americans, Ingram and Burnham, during Capt. Wilson's pursuit of King Lobengula.

The natives, Selous says, were keeping up a hot fire from both sides of the valley and the whites answered it steadily. Wilson called to Burnham and asked if he thought he could ride back to the main column, commanded by Major Forbes, and get help. To this Burnham replied:

"I will try, Major, but I should like Fred Ingram to accompany me."

Capt. Wilson agreed to this, and Selous, continuing, says that after leaving their comrades the Americans first rode down the valley in order to get clear of the Kafirs in the right hand bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

The natives charged upon the Americans, but Burnham and Ingram rode so splendidly and fired with such good effect that they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

THE WORK HAS BEGUN

Harlem Speedway Resounds to Music of Pick and Shovel.

Mayor Gilroy Opens the Labor Feast with a Brief Speech.

Immense Crowd Present Cheers Him to the Echo.

Fully 2,000 men with picks and shovels congregated at One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street and St. Nicholas place at 5 o'clock this morning to apply for work on the Harlem River Speedway when work should be formally opened.

At promptly 9 o'clock Mayor Gilroy and President Tappen, of the Board of Park Commissioners, arrived upon the scene. The air was filled with cold, and the ceremony of formally opening the work, which it is promised will give work in the near future to at least 1,500 of the city's unemployed, was hastily gone through with.

The Mayor was met at the station by Contractor James D. Leary, who is to build the first section of the Speedway from One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street to High Bridge, who escorted him to the scene where operations are to be begun.

Already there was a big crowd in waiting and the Mayor's appearance was greeted by a cheering cheer. He was escorted by Contractor Leary and President Tappen to a point on the river where the work was to be begun.

Only about thirty or forty men were paid in the regular course of events, but should Congress give him a resolution of thanks, his period of active service would be extended ten years further.

In another respects the vote of thanks would give Admiral Benham unusual privileges. Rule 24, in the House, provides that among the few to be accorded the privilege of admission to the floor are such persons as have, by name, received the thanks of Congress.

BENHAM'S POSSIBLE HONORS.

Thanks of Congress Would Give Him Ten Years More Active Service.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Admiral Benham's future may be much affected by the recent incident in Rio Harbor, and the resolution introduced by Representative Money complimenting the Admiral.

In the regular course of events he would be retired in April next, but should Congress give him a resolution of thanks, his period of active service would be extended ten years further.

Only about thirty or forty men were paid in the regular course of events, but should Congress give him a resolution of thanks, his period of active service would be extended ten years further.

In another respects the vote of thanks would give Admiral Benham unusual privileges. Rule 24, in the House, provides that among the few to be accorded the privilege of admission to the floor are such persons as have, by name, received the thanks of Congress.

GALLANT YANKEES IN AFRICA

Dashing Ride of Two Americans Who Were with Capt. Wilson.

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Feb. 5.—F. C. Selous, the explorer, who has just returned from South Africa, tells a graphic story of his experiences with the Wilson detachment.

Selous also confirms the statements made by Corydon, the hunter, of the prominent and brilliant part taken by two Americans, Ingram and Burnham, during Capt. Wilson's pursuit of King Lobengula.

The natives, Selous says, were keeping up a hot fire from both sides of the valley and the whites answered it steadily. Wilson called to Burnham and asked if he thought he could ride back to the main column, commanded by Major Forbes, and get help. To this Burnham replied:

"I will try, Major, but I should like Fred Ingram to accompany me."

Capt. Wilson agreed to this, and Selous, continuing, says that after leaving their comrades the Americans first rode down the valley in order to get clear of the Kafirs in the right hand bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

The Americans outflanked them and managed to get clear. No sooner were they clear of the body of the enemy, however, than they came upon a second and much larger force, rapidly advancing through the bush.

When the Americans finally got clear they and their horses were completely exhausted.

SAID GRANT SHOT HIM

John McGrath Found Bleeding Over the Blatts Apartments.

Signs of a Debauch, Revolver, Dagger and Slungshot Found.

The Wounded Man Fled Over the Roofs from the Police.

Policeman Austin, of the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street station, was informed by a passer-by at 3 o'clock this morning that a man had been shot at 253 East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street.

On investigation the officer found John McGrath, twenty-two, an occupation, who is known to the police as a thug, lying unconscious in a room on the third floor and bleeding from a bullet hole in the mouth.

When McGrath revived he said that John Grant had shot him while he was making a call on Frederick Blatts and his wife, Catherine, who live on the floor below. Calling in other officers, Policeman Austin visited the Blatts apartment, and found there both the Blatts and John McGrath, alias McGulley, eighteen, of 253 East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, Edward Smith, twenty, of 423 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street, William Broderick, twenty-six, of 257 East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, and Thomas Furlong, twenty-six, of 256 Second avenue.

Signs of a general debauch abounded in the room. A quantity of blood covered the floor. In the bed was found a revolver, on the floor a dagger and in the corner a slungshot.

McGrath's condition was considered critical, and an ambulance was sent for him to the Harlem Hospital. The ambulance surgeon considered McGrath's wound very serious, and wanted to take him to the hospital.

McGrath refused to go, and catching the officers unawares dashed out of the room. He was followed by the police men, but was unable to find his way, though all the roofs in the block were searched.

WHERE IS MIKE JENNINGS?

Bellevue Doctors Want to Question Him About His Sister.

She Has a Phenomenal Trance Regularly Every Saturday.

The presence of Michael Jennings is very much desired at Bellevue Hospital just now, where information which he could give concerning the past life of his sister, Mary, would be of inestimable value in a diagnosis of her peculiar case.

Many has been in New York about three weeks. Two Saturdays since her arrival she has dropped off into a trance with alarming regularity. These spells of unconsciousness are pronounced by Dr. Taylor, of the Chambers Street Hospital, as phenomenal in their indication of the extraordinary physical and nervous conditions of the subject.

From letters found on her person, it appears that the girl came from Scranton, Pa., three weeks ago last Saturday. She was removed to the Chambers Street Hospital. She remained unconscious for twenty-two hours. The following Tuesday she indulged in a trance of two hours' duration.

The next Saturday she was in the world of dreams for eighteen hours, and last Saturday she again dropped off for twenty hours.

Miss Jennings, who is a comely young woman with large, dreamy, dark eyes, very pleasant and agreeable, and a statement concerning her own name. All she could recall of her past was that she had fallen from her mother's arms when a child and been hurt about the head.

This morning she was removed to Bellevue Hospital, where she will be examined by insanity experts. In the meantime, she is being treated by a physician, an old wound was found on the girl's head. It may be that her skull has been injured and that a fractured brain, pressing on the brain, affects her memory. This may also account for the peculiar symptoms in her case.

ONCE A CIRCUS RIDER.

Adele Harrington, Homeless and Dejected, Taken Care Of.

Adele Harrington, twenty-seven years old, formerly a well-known circus rider, was committed to the care of the Charities Commissioners this morning from the Jefferson Market Court.

Policeman Walsh, of the Mercer street station, found Harrington lying on the sidewalk yesterday. She is evidently demented, and says she has no home.

ATTACKED HIS SICK MOTHER.

Kerrigan Fined for Brutal Conduct Towards His Family.

Justice Voorhis, in the Yorkville Police Court, this morning, fined William Kerrigan, of 214 East Fourteenth street, $10, for attacking his sick mother out of bed, and dragged his wife, sister and younger brother out of the house at the point of a knife.

Kerrigan, since his marriage a few months ago, has been a drunkard. He began his trouble last night by throwing a lamp and smashing it on his sick mother's head. He then went on to attack his wife, sister and younger brother, and his wife interfered. He drew a knife and drove her, his sister Maggie, and his brother to the street. Maggie called on Policeman Fiske, of the East Thirty-fifth street station, who arrested Kerrigan.

ACCUSED BY A CHILD.

Brown Charged with Attempted Assault Upon a Ten-Year-Old Girl.

Charles Brown, thirty-nine years old, of 371 Stanton street, who says that he is an employee of the Dock Department, was a prisoner in the Bow Market Police Court to-day. Ten-year-old Little Cohen, of 381 Stanton street, accused him of attempting to assault her yesterday in the hallway of 381 Stanton street. The girl's statement was corroborated by Justice Koch, who discharged the defendant after giving him a severe lecture.

Threatened to Shoot Her.

George H. Calvin, a painter, who has been separated from his wife for two weeks, went to the room at 225 West Twenty-third street, this morning, accused her of infidelity, drew a revolver and threatened to shoot her. The woman was taken to the police station near by. Detective Madden ran to and arrested Calvin. He was held for a short time, but was released after a check drawn on the Second National Bank for $1.00 had been paid for trial.

Mrs. Craven Robbed by Her Son.

Henry Craven, fifteen years old, was remanded in the care of the Gerry Society, in the Tombs Police Court, this morning charged by his mother, who lives at 223 Elizabeth street, with robbing her of $75 and some jewelry while she was at church yesterday. None of the property was found in the boy's possession.

She Pleads Guilty of Forgery.

Louise Collins, the servant of Catherine L. Chambers, a dressmaker at 223 Lexington avenue, who forged the name of Mrs. Chambers's husband on a check drawn on the Second National Bank for $4.74, pleaded guilty in Yorkville Police Court this morning. She was held in $1,000 bail, and will be tried in the Tombs Police Court.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Proves an Inestimable Blessing.

"I came from the army a perfect wreck. I served in the 127th Regiment, N.Y. State Vol., and after the war, when I returned home, I was a great sufferer from the effects of tropical fever. I had also chronic diarrhea, dysentery, rheumatism and the troubles brought on by long exposure of a soldier's life. I was induced by a friend to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and

B. Altman & Co

Te-Morrow.

3,000 yards

Plain IMPORTED SILKS

(Just received),

In popular Evening shades,

78^c yd., regular price $1.25

18th St. 19th St. and 6th Ave. (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

WHERE IS MIKE JENNINGS?

Bellevue Doctors Want to Question Him About His Sister.

B. Altman & Co

Te-Morrow.

3,000 yards

Plain IMPORTED SILKS

(Just received),

In popular Evening shades,

78^c yd., regular price $1.25

18th St. 19th St. and 6th Ave. (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

WHERE IS MIKE JENNINGS?

Bellevue Doctors Want to Question Him About His Sister.

B. Altman & Co

Te-Morrow.

3,000 yards

Plain IMPORTED SILKS

(Just received),

In popular Evening shades,

78^c yd., regular price $1.25

18th St. 19th St. and 6th Ave. (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

WHERE IS MIKE JENNINGS?

Bellevue Doctors Want to Question Him About His Sister.

B. Altman & Co

Te-Morrow.

3,000 yards

Plain IMPORTED SILKS

(Just received),

In popular Evening shades,

78^c yd., regular price $1.25

18th St. 19th St. and 6th Ave. (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

WHERE IS MIKE JENNINGS?

Bellevue Doctors Want to Question Him About His Sister.

B. Altman & Co

Te-Morrow.

3,000 yards

Plain IMPORTED SILKS

(Just received),

In popular Evening shades,

78^c yd., regular price $1.25

18th St. 19th St. and 6th Ave. (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

WHERE IS MIKE JENNINGS?

Bellevue Doctors Want to Question Him About His Sister.

B. Altman & Co

Te-Morrow.

3,000 yards

Plain IMPORTED SILKS

(Just received),

In popular Evening shades,

78^c yd., regular price $1.25

18th St. 19th St. and 6th Ave. (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

WHERE IS MIKE JENNINGS?

Bellevue Doctors Want to Question Him About His Sister.

B. Altman & Co

Te-Morrow.

3,000 yards

Plain IMPORTED SILKS

(Just received),

In popular Evening shades,

78^c yd., regular price $1.25

18th St. 19th St. and 6th Ave. (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

WHERE IS MIKE JENNINGS?

Bellevue Doctors Want to Question Him About His Sister.

B. Altman & Co

Te-Morrow.

3,000 yards

Plain IMPORTED SILKS

(Just received),

In popular Evening shades,

78^c yd., regular price $1.25

18th St. 19th St. and 6th Ave. (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

WHERE IS MIKE JENNINGS?

Bellevue Doctors Want to Question Him About His Sister.

B. Altman & Co

Te-Morrow.

3,000 yards

Plain IMPORTED SILKS

(Just received),

In popular Evening shades,

78^c yd., regular price $1.25